Tips for people fleeing the war in Ukraine on how to stay safe in the European Union

Never give your passport or identity document to anyone except for a border guard or public official. Always carry it with you.

Before going into someone's car, take a picture of the licence plate and send it to friends and family.

Use accommodation offered by trusted organisations where nothing is expected from you in return.